INTRODUCTION

Travelling for many years and experimenting with music makes you meet many interesting people. The exchange of ideas and point of views makes you see things from another perspective. This is the case with Alex Ferrer, a former Spanish diplomat, who decided to change the bureaucrats for legendary house producers. After a few years of traveling the five continents and meeting with some of the greatest artists in the scene, he decided to immerse himself in the music world with the launch of a new record label, cleverly tributing the name to his former career.

Deedplomatic Recordings was born in London, United Kingdom in late 2013 with the idea of unifying some of the best artists of the scene into one label, and promote House Music internationally. After the release of its first EP in September 2014, Deedplomatic has become one of the most prolific House labels worldwide, releasing music from some of the top stalwarts in the industry and creating stunning parties in the most iconic places.

ABOUT US

The record label carefully selects its artists to provide a high-quality product. With a roster that includes names such as Robert Babicz, Phonique, Gorge, Ninetoes, Funk D'Void, Einmusik, Rick Wade, Joeski, Terrence Parker, Mihai Popoviciu, Miguel Puente, Jay Haze, Paul Johnson and Alex Ferrer, Deepomatic demonstrates exactly its core value; the finest electronic music creations.

The label showcases its artists and music in multiple formats, in locations as diverse as it is surprising. It develops experiences around the planet in some of the most exciting music capitals of the world: Playa del Carmen, Mexico, where Deepomatic co-runs Coincidence Music Festival, an annual 4 day event with some of the world's leading electronic music artists; Wave Week, a hedonistic yacht festival across the Adriatic Sea or an epic showcase at Ministry of Sound for the London Music Conference.
